I, Octavio E. Magaña, a Probation Officer employed in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, solemnly affirm and declare, under penalty of perjury, that to the best of my information and belief, the facts set forth in this affidavit are true and correct. The factual affirmations made below are based on my personal knowledge, on official records or documents generated and maintained by my agency in the course of performing its functions, on official records or documents generated and maintained by other government agents or agencies in the course of performing their functions, or on information provided to me orally or electronically by employees or agents of other public agencies (information developed or acquired in the course of performing official agency functions).

Charge Number	Violation
----------------------	------------------

One	There is probable cause to believe that the offender violated special condition number one which states that the offender shall reside at a half-way house for a term of six (6) months upon release from custody.
-----	--

The offender was terminated from the half-way house on May 7, 2008. The offender began his court ordered, six-month term on April 4, 2008.

Evidence in support of this charge includes the termination report from the half-way house, Cornell Companies Inc. According to the report, the offender was given the employment orientation on February 20, 2008. During this orientation, the offender was made aware that it was a requirement to provide verification of full time employment by March 12, 2008. On March 18, 2008, the offender received an in-house extension, which expired on April 8, 2008. On May 7, 2008, the offender was terminated for failure to obtain employment within a stipulated time frame.

Address of offender:	Cornell Communities Inc. 111 Taylor Street, San Francisco, CA
----------------------	--

Based on the foregoing, there is probable cause to believe that Robert William Klure violated the conditions of his supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

Octavio E. Magaña
U.S. Probation Officer Specialist
